END OF THE QUAY CASE

An Unexpected Termination of the Famous Trial.

NO WITNESS FOR DEFENSE.

Counsel For Ex-Senator Decides to Offer No Testimony.

ARGUMENTS ON BOTH SIDES.

The Court Overrules the Motion of the Defense to Order a Verdict of Not Guilty -- summary of the Arguments Submitted to the Jurors.

Philadelphia, April 20.-The Quay case went to the jury at 3:05 p. m. Judge Riddle announced that he will remain in call until 6 p. m. If the jury have not agreed on a verdict by that hour they will be locked up for Philadelphia, April 20.-The defense opened its part of the proceedings in the trial of Senator Quay, on the charge of conspiracy, by moving that the court withdraw the case from the jury and render a verdict of "not guilty." In support of this motion David T. Watson made a long argument. He began with the statement that early in the trial the prosecution presented an offer to produce evidence connecting M. S. Quay with a conspiracy alleged to have been entered into with Cashier Hopkins of the People's bank and State Treasurer B. J. Haywood for the misuse of state funds deposited in the People's bank. Mr. Watson argued that the district attorney had utterly failed to prove its case, and moved that the court strike from the record the statements produced from the books of the bank, because they failed to connect M. S. Quay with conspiracy. He also moved to strike out the "red book" on the same grounds. The same motion was made with reference to the letter of July 31, 1896, from Treasurer Haywood to President McManes of the bank, agreeing to a loan to R. R. quay, and the minutes of the bank directors with regard thereto, the ground being that this evidence relates to a transaction with which M. S. Quay is not con-

Another point raised was that Goldsmith, the commonwealth's caref witness, is not an expert, that instead of testifying to what the books disclosed he evolved a theory from inferences, and partly from outside information.

The crime charged, said Mr. Watson, is conspiracy, and, curious to say, there is only one person indicted. The commonwealth utterly failed, he contended, to connect the defendant with the charges of conspiracy.

In the course of his argument, Mr. Watson made the point that the prosecution admitted that not one cent of interest on state funds had ever been paid to Mr. Quay.

He argued that while some of the testimony offered may be evidence against Hopkins and Haywood, it is certainly not evidence against Quay. The commonwealth has failed to show that Mr. Quay had anything to do with inducing Treasurer Haywood to deposit state funds in the People's bank.

Coming to the loan of $100,000 to R. R. Quay, Mr. Watson pointed out that this was a loan to another man, and the commonwealth has not proved that Senator Quay even indorsed the

The attorney quoted the laws relating to the duties of the state treasurer, and said there was nothing to prevent him from depositing the money in his custody wherever he pleases. The law prohibits him from gaining profit by such deposit, but it does not prohibit the depository from gaining profit; it is expected that a bank accepts deposits for that purpose.

District Attorney Rothermel, in reply to Mr. Watson's argument, referred to his offer of proof, and declared the commonwealth has proved the conspiracy completely within the line to which the court limited it, namely, the two years ante-dating Nov. 17, 1898.

Judge Biddle said there was presented to him, first, a demurrer to the indictment; second, a demurrer to the evidence. As to the first he would say nothing, as he was not in position to discredit the testimony made by the commonwealth, and he would therefore allow the case to go to the jury for made the announcement that the defense would offer no testimony what-ever, and would at once proceed to the ever, and would at once proceed to the addresses to the jury. In order to save time Mr. Shields offered to waive the Bloody Encounter of Chinese Factions right to make the opening speech.

All this was agreeable, and Mr. Rothermel at once started in a calm, quiet manner, in an attempt to convince the jury that he had established the guilt of Senator Quay.

The district attorney, in opening, reviewed the charges against Mr. Quay, and read the law on the subject. The crime, he said, was that of conspiracy, and, being born in secrecy, was therefore difficult to prove. It must invariably be proved by the acts of the conspirators, as it is almost impossible to get the statement of one of the conspirators. Coming to the relation of Mr. Quay, politically, to State Treasurer Haywood he indicated that if the state treasurer received interest from the cashier, and Mr. Quay the interest on $200,000 from the cashier, the natural inference is that these men have entered into a conspiracy.

There might be no direct evidence, he continued, but there should be no doubt that conspiracy was conceived and carried out.

Mr. Rothermel read Mr. Quay's letter to Cashier Hopkins directing the purchase of 900 shares of Metropolitan stock. This, he argued, was unlawful, because the purchase was made with bank money, and no interest was

He showed by the evidence that the state deposit during the six months ending Oct. 31, 1897, ranged from $525,-000 to over $600,000, and that other loans were made to Mr. Quay without interest. The check of Hopkins to Treasurer Haywood for $1,519 was dis-

Mr. Rothermel said the bank's books showed this amount was the interest on state funds, less 20 per cent for the bank and less interest on $200,000 for the use of Mr. Quay.

The "red book" he designated as unintelligible in itself, but connected with the other books of the bank, he asserted that it was the key to the proof of the charges.

The district attorney, in concluding, referred to the resolution of the board of directors Aug. 3, 1896, authorizing a loan of $100,000, alleged to be indorsed by Mr. Quay, provided a certain letter could be obtained. He then read the Haywood letter to president Mc-Manes of the bank, indicating that $100,000 of state money would be deposited in the bank if R. R. Quay was loaned a similar amount, and that it would not be removed until the loan was paid.

After a short recess Attorney Shields began his argument to the jury. At the outset he took up the fact that the case of the prosecution was built on the testimony of experts, and quoted an opinion of the supreme court that "the tendency is to call experts to testify to ready-made opinions."

This he declared was a prophecy covering the case in a remarkable way. Mr. Shields dwelt on ex-Judge Gordon's connection with the prosecution. and denounced his actions in unmeasured terms. He argued that the political conspiracy against Quay was begun when Judge Gordon got from the receiver of the broken bank the books and letters found in the dead cashier's private desk, and kept them in his possession for months. He went over the improper use made of these documents in furtherance of his political ambition and his hatred of Senator

Mr. Shields denounced the photographing of letters and the exhibition of those puotographs to Democratic National Committeeman Guffey and John Wanamaker as proof positive of the conspiracy for the undoing of Sen-

Mr. Shields took up the "plum tree" telegram, and directed his most withering sarcasm against the smallness of the minds of the men who would use this document against a public man, in view of the fact that Senator Quay had more than $60,000 of his own money on deposit, and that $10,000 of this was used as margin in the transaction.

THREE ARE IN THE MORGUE.

he Trouble Is Said to Have Had Its Origin In Conviction of Tai Choy the For Crime of Murder Some Time Ago.

Fresno, Cal., April 20 .- A bloody highbinder war that has been expected for some days broke out in Chinatown, and as a result three Mongolians occupy slabs in the morgue, two more are at the County hospital, mortally wounded, and nine are behind the bars in the county jail.

Upon hearing the first shot, Policeman Rapelji, who was a block away ran to the alley north of Tulare street, between F and G, where he saw two Chinese pumping lead into the body of a third Chinese, who lay at their feet. Further up the alley were at least a dozen Chinamen running about and blazing away at each other.

As Rapelji ran up the alley a Chinaman ran past him pursued by a highbinder. The fugitive made for a doorway, but was dropped on the steps by a bullet from the highbinder's gun, which struck him in the head, killing him instantly. Rapelji captured the murderer, who gave his name as Wong Duck.

Policeman Morss, who was running to the scene of the shooting, saw a highbinder run up to a Chinaman named Chin Chi, who was standing in a doorway, and deliberately fire two shots at him killing him instantly. The murderer then started to run, whereupon Morss ordered him to stop, but instead the highbinder threw his gun at Morss' head. As he continued to run Morss fired, the ball penetrating the Chinaman's back, and he is now as the hospital not expected to live.

After quiet had been restored, a raid on the suspected haunts of the highbinders was made, and in one place were found three coats of mail and a small arsenal of revolvers, hatchets and knives. Nine men were arrested on suspicion. Three were charged with vagrancy and three with murder. One of them had a pair of brass knuckles on him at the time of his arrest.

Three of the victims have been identined. One is Ah Tai, a vegetable peddler. He was probably shot by accident. One of the dead is Chan Chee, a well known highbinder, and another is Lee On Tong, a peddler.

The fight is a factional one between the Bing Kung Tongs and the Suey On Tongs, rival companies. The trouble which led to the murders commenced with the conviction of Tai Choy, who was removed to San Quentin, to serve a sentence for murder in the second degree.

The local Tongs were sharply divided on the issue. The matter was rendered more acute when Gee Wing, who had evidently sold some property in China alley for $5,000, fled from the state to escape his creditors. A number of laborers and others to whom he owed sum ranging from $50 to $150 instituted criminal proceedings. Meanwhile the highbinders had taken the matter up, and it is believed that one of their objects was to blackmail Gee Wing or to bring about a forcible settlement of the laborers' claims.

IMPORTANCE OF VACCINATION.

The Commissioner of Health for the city of Chicago has issued an appeal setting forth the wide prevalence of smallpox throughout the country and the necessary respect to the only declared means of protection, namely, vaccination.

"It hardly seems possible," says a medical journal, "that any one could object to this simple yet most successful method of preventing the horrible disease. In 1871 Germany lost 143,000 lives annually by smallpox. In 1874 vaccina- inous glare, finding destruction in its tion was made obligatory. THE city of Maysville has not sold its stock in the Maysville and Lexington turnpike company. The $3,000 received this week came out of the money paid the company for that portion of the road in Fleming, Nicholas, Bourbon and Fayette counties. We understand the city authorities expect to receive fully as much more when the affairs of the company are finally settled up.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal sees some encouragement for the tobacco grower in the establishment of numerous small tobacco factories in opposition to the trust:

It is reported that within the past five months more small tobacco factories have been organized than were ever before known to be formed in a similar period of time. Not one of these concerns is large, we believe, the biggest capitalization being only $30,000 and the majority being rather under than above $5,000. A number of these small establishments have been started up in Louisville and other tobacco centers. Several have been organized in Cincinnati and other Ohio cities; one with $24,000 capitalization in Detroit, and we presume there are more whose insignificance is such as to have escaped attention. At any rate, there seems to be a general movement to venture into a field of manufacture that has apparently been pre-empted by one gi-gantic combination.

MR. WATTERSON'S LECTURE.

The Noted Writer and Orator Will Speak at the Opera House To-Night on "Lincoln."

The people of Maysville-or at least most of them, will this evening enjoy their first opportunity of hearing Col. Henry Watterson, the distinguished editor and eloquent lecturer. Col. Watterson's name is almost a household word in Kentucky yet this is probably his first visit to Maysville, and he should be greeted by a very large audience. He will speak on "Abraham Lincoln." Of the lecture and the lecturer, the Commercial Tribure of Cincinnati says: "Mr. Watterson is always eloquent. He is even eloquent in his style of telling stories-and County. those who heard him at the Pike when he recited some droll sayings of Lincoln appreciated the lecturer's powers of imitation in this direction. All through it are characteristics of Mr. Watterson. His individuality is strongly stamped upon the style of the masterly eulogy on Lincoln. * * Every seat in the opera house was occupied, and the Union netted a snug little sum from the entertainment. Mr. Watterson, in his pen picture of 'Abe Lincoln-From the Log Cabin to the Presidency'—is in his glory, and those

"THE FOUR HUNDRED."

Members of the Y. M. C. A. Are Now Enjoying This New Game-Dr. Ellis to Speak Sunday.

The boys around the association are enjoying a new game. The inventor of the game, "The Four Hundred," (400) has contributeded it to the Maysville Association. Our thanks are due Dr. A. Oscar Browne, of Louisville, for this addition, our local friend, Mr. A. D. Flora, having presented the claims of the Maysville association. The association ever stands ready to gracefully and graciously receive all such gitts from the hands of both peoreading room and game room, though fairly well equipped, cannot have too many attractions, and indeed is ever more interesting and attractive to the boys and young men with every new feature. The association is a worthy institution and deserves the thought of every spirited citizen.

The men's rally Sunday will be in charge of Mr. C. P. Traxel. A special meeting is being planned for. Dr. A. N. inger's conclusion to retire from Ellis will address the meeting, taking for his subject, "Help Yourself and God will Help You." Plan to attend.

MILLIONS MADE

Sale of the Liggett & Meyers Plant to the Trust.

St. Louis, Mo., April 17 .- The long-discussed absorption of the Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Company by the Continental Company was finally accomplished this morning, when Moses C. Wetmore, the President, and George S. Meyers, the largest individual stockholder, attached their signatures to the final papers, which were in the possession of the Union Trust Company. Immediately afterward they visited the plant of the corporation at Tower Grove and Folsom avenues and there straightened out the last details preparatory to the final transfer, the entire afternoon being devoted to this work.

According to an inside broker, the deal was made last Wednesday, when Mr. Baruch, of a New York brokerage firm, secured an option on the plant for $200,entire property bought for $11,000,000 by George J. Butler, of the Union Tobacco Company. This firm, in turn, disposed of the plants to Mr. Duke, President of the American Tobacco Company, for $15,-000,000, and finally the Continental Tobacco Company, the reputed purchasers, secured it from the American Company for $17,500,000, an appreciation of $6,500,-000 in five days.

PITHY POINTS.

With the trusts, combines and the gold power as masters, the people will soon be no better than galley slaves.

Every man outside of the trusts, combines and millionaires, who in any way favors such a crowd, simply puts a noose round his own neck. Trusts are as much the creatures of the Republican party as is the tariff.

Trusts, combines and the tariff are all a combination of the millionaires and gold power against the masses and producers.

The Republican tarin and the trusts work together in perfect harmony.

The gold, power, the high tariff and the trusts are thoroughly in accord.

No true Democrat will favor high tariff, trusts

The promoters of the high tariff and trusts are all in sympathy with the gold power.

Trusts are the off-spring of the tariff, and the tariff is the off-spring of the Republican party.

True Democracy may no more ally itself with trusts, gold men and high tariff than oil may mix with water.

Trusts, like the high tariff, are as surely un-Democratic in their conception and origin as they are in their tendency.

The chief reason that the party in power isn't pronounced against trusts is because the latter are so nearly akin to their off-spring-the tariff. There's no consistency or common sense either in a man claiming to be opposed to trusts and yet favoring the gold power.

Jeffersonian Democracy doesn't ally itself with anything that oppresses the masses in favor of millionaires as do trusts, the tariff and the gold

A SERIOUS SPLIT

Occurs Among the Members of Filipino Junta In Europe.

London, April 20 .- A serious split has occurred among the members of the Filipino junta, a majority of whom are in favor of direct conferences with the secretary of state at Washington, Colonel John Hay, with the view of bringing about a peaceful solution of the Philippine question.

Four delegates, Lasada, Marti, Lopez and Rivera, finding that Agoncillo, Aguinaldo's representative, disagrees with this view, they have started for Manilla, leaving Agoncillo, Riogo and Lunar, who insist upon absolute and unconditional independence.

The others do not object to some form of American intervention in the government of the island, and they say they believe a personal meeting between Aguinaldo and Admiral Dewey. in whom alone the Filipinos declare they have confidence, will lead to a settlement.

1	More Regulars to Be Sent.
- 1	The state to be bent.	- 1

Washington, April 20.-Fourteen thousand regulars are to be sent to reinforce General Otis at Manilla as soon as the necessary marine transportation can be provided. The first regiment to be ordered will probably be the Seventh artillery, of which the two light batteries, C and M, have been ordered home from Porto Rico for the purpose. They will be sent at once to San Francisco to await an available transpacific steamer.

Kansas City, April 20.—The Missouri river is still rising, but the changes are less marked than 24 hours ago.

Resulted In Death.

Missouri City, Mo., April 20 .- Miss. Della Clevenger, who was shot by her cousin, Ernest Clevenger, on the night of Dec. 8 last, is dead of her wounds. Ernest Clevenger is in jail at Liberty, having been returned there Monday from Vibbard, Mo., where he was recaptured after having escaped a week before. There is talk of lynching.

$25,000.00 Given Away.

In the past year Dr. R. V. Pierce has given away copies of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, at an expense to him of $25,000.00 exclusive of postage. This standard book of medicine and hygiene, contains 1008 pages and more than 700 illustrations. It treats of the greatest and gravest problems of human life in simple English, from a common sense point of view. It answers those questions of sex which linger unspoken upon the lips of youth and maiden. It is esssentially a family book, and its advice in a moment of sudden illness or accident may be the means of saving a valuable life. This great work is sent absolutely free on receipt of stamps to defray the cost of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper binding, or thirty-one stamps for cloth covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y

PAINTS, VARNISH BRUSHES?

PAINT is not a cheap substitute for white lead, but a mixture of Carbonate of Lead and Zinc combined with pure Linseed Oil on such a scientific principle as to produce a Paint that will resist the action of the elements and furnish a more durable coating than is possible to attain with Paint combined by the old style of mixing by hand.
